CREATIVE ENRICHMENT PROGRAM

CORPORATE
SPONSORSHIP

Welcome Home.

Hello there! First off, we'd like to extend our sincerest gratitude to you for being a part of our journey. The Red Roses Creative Enrichment Program is proud to provide creative education and programming to historically excluded youth and young adults in the Los Angeles area. Every person that walks through our doors is part of our family— including you! We thank you for your consideration as a potential sponsor to our nonprofit.

Every donation we receive goes a long way towards providing better education, resources, a safe space, and empowering environment for our members who may not be able to access them otherwise. Sponsorships directly fund our programs and classes for creative arts. There's no better way to say it; these funds change lives. With your support, we can continue our tradition of providing high caliber education that combines community centered teaching practices with arts education that inspires youth to express themselves, build empathy, take action in their communities, and empower themselves and others to change the world.

Thank you for your consideration and welcome home.
